DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Color photographs and color drawings are not accepted unless a petition filed under 37 CFR 1.84(a)(2) is granted. Any such petition must be accompanied by the appropriate fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(h), three sets of color drawings or color photographs, as appropriate, and, unless already present, an amendment to include the following language as the first paragraph of the brief description of the drawings section of the specification:

The patent or application file contains at least one drawing executed in color. Copies of this patent or patent application publication with color drawing(s) will be provided by the Office upon request and payment of the necessary fee.

Color photographs will be accepted if the conditions for accepting color drawings and black and white photographs have been satisfied. See 37 CFR 1.84(b)(2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claim 9 is finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The specification fails to sufficiently describe the invention claimed in claim 9 so as to enable one of ordinary skill in the art to make the invention claimed without undue experimentation. It is not clear from the specification how to incorporate the shield element into the device.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 6 and 9 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 6: a broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 6 recites the broad recitation the range from 0° to 15°, and the claim also recites the range from 0° to 10°, which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

With respect to claim 6: it is not clear whether the word in the parentheses is intended to further limit the claim.

With respect to claim 9: it is not clear how a shield element is incorporated into an access space and on the main frame to the cutting head as now shown in Fig 5.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-2 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO-89/11803, herein after WO'803.

WO'803 discloses a main frame, a feeding-compacting arrangement frame, transporters, means for compacting of feed particles, stationary frame [claim 1] and the a feeding-compacting arrangement frame that moves along the horizontal guides 23 [claim 3].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 3-9 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO'803.

The limitations of these claims would have been obvious modifications by one skilled in the art once the basic apparatus was known. For example depending on the type of organic material and the nature and properties of the objects to be processed different cutter-head with different number of cutting knives can be utilized. Additionally, it is well known to provide a shield to cover the cutting edges of a cutting device.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments filed 7/23/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument on page 9 that the arrangement of the invention does not require the complex moving mechanism of '824, the invention requires only relatively simple horizontal guides, the arrangement of the subject application is novel because it makes practically possible construction, process, servicing and maintenance features of the cutting head unit that are not as easily achievable in a device according to '824 and that the present invention provide a number of advantages which are not apparent to those skilled in the art, such as the precise setting/positioning of the cutting head. The examiner would like to point out that none of these advantages would make the claims non anticipated or obvious. Additionally, all of these have not been captured by the claims that only require horizontal guides fixed to the main frame as clearly taught by WO'803 as stated above.

Conclusion

11. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
